

Money transfers in Russian rubles without opening a bank account

BST-Bank JSC offers money transfer services without opening a bank account. Money transfers are carried out throughout the Russian Federation.

You must have an identity document (passport of a citizen of the Russian Federation) with you.

Transfers are sent in Russian rubles.

Money transfers are carried out no later than the next banking day.

The cost of a money transfer is 1.1% of the amount (but not less than 100 rubles and not more than 4,000 rubles).

BST-BANK JSC makes payments of transfers without opening a bank account in favor of individuals. You must have an identity document (passport of a citizen of the Russian Federation) with you.

To receive a transfer, an individual submits a written application to the Bank for receiving the transfer.

The cost of non-cash transfer of an individual's transfer to the accounts of unpaid transfers is 1% of the amount.